

VOTING TIPSHEET

Finding your electoral district

To find out voter information specific to your electoral district, visit this website. If you know your district, select it from the drop-down menu and click Next.

1

If you do not know your electoral district, click 'search for your electoral district by postal code'.

2

A1A 1A1

Enter your postal code or search from a list of First Nation reserves, lots, or concession addresses.

3

VOTING TIPSHEET

Finding your electoral district

Once you click 'search', you will be taken to your electoral district page which includes your district map, your current Member of Provincial Parliament, and information about where/when to vote. This will help you understand who the candidates are for your electoral district.

4

Before election day, it may be helpful to research which polling station you will need to visit.

5

Find polling station information here: voterinformationservice.elections.on.ca.

6