DIRECTOR'S NOTES:

There is something truly special about working with students, and this group has reminded me of that every single day. I love being in the rehearsal room with young artists—watching them take bold risks, discover new layers of their talent, and bring ideas to life in ways that are surprising, hilarious, and deeply creative.

This cast has embraced the joyful chaos of Something Rotten! Jr. with open hearts and fearless energy. Their comedic timing, musicality, and willingness to fully commit to the absurdity of this show have made the entire process an absolute delight. But beyond the laughs, what has stood out most is their growth. It has been so much fun to watch them evolve—not just as performers, but as collaborators and storytellers who support and inspire one another.

This show celebrates creativity, big dreams, and the magic of theatre itself—and this group embodies all of that and more. I am so proud of the work they've done and so grateful to have been part of their journey.

Thank you for being here to support these incredible students.

Enjoy the show!

- Ashley Grant
