DEDICATION

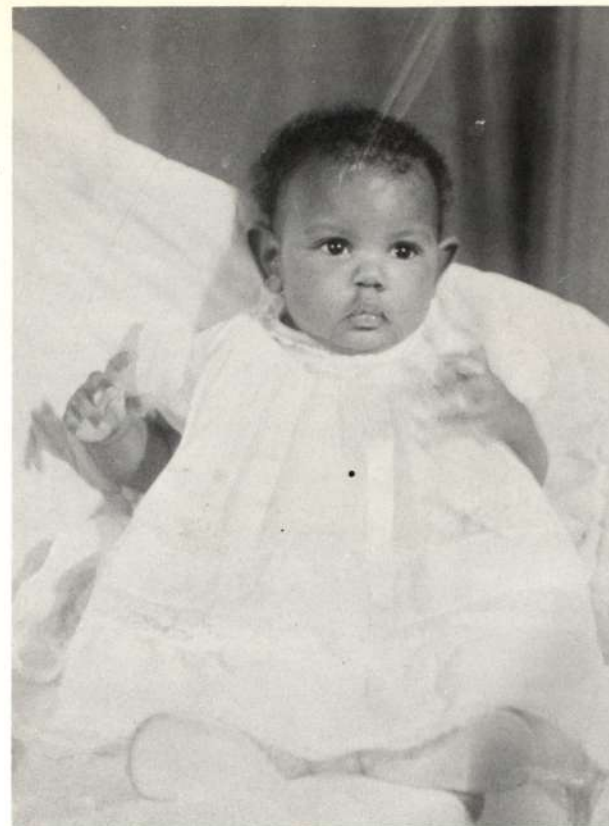

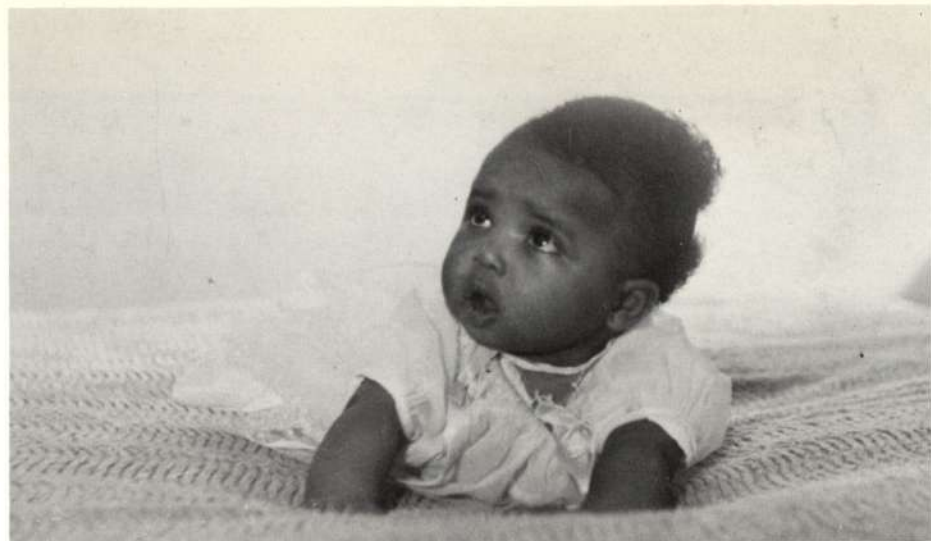

The class of 1973 would like to dedicate their yearbook to two individuals who have been quite active in the betterment and success of this class.

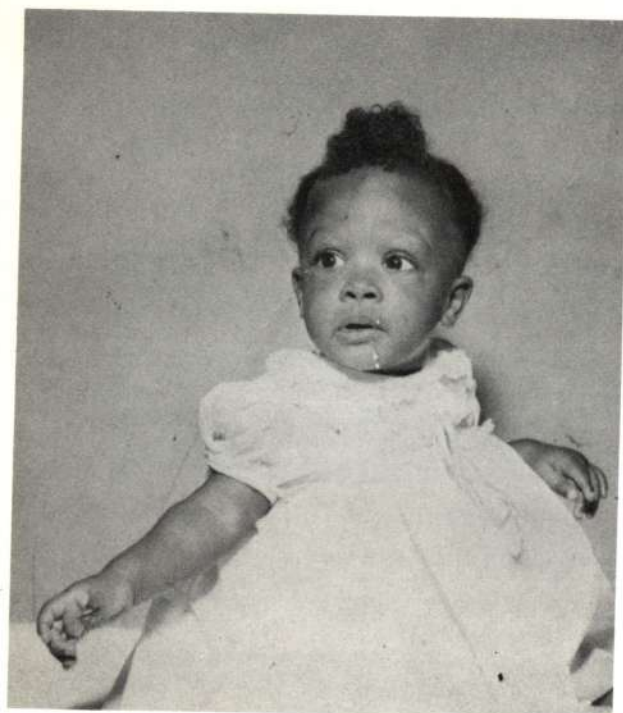

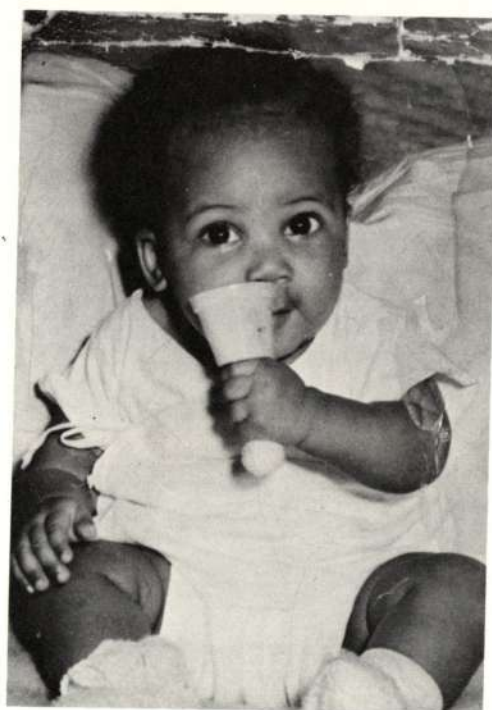

To Mr. Richard Ciringione, our yearbook advisor, whose tedious hours of work throughout the year have resulted in the publishing of one of the best yearbooks ever.

And to Mr. Todd Schlegel, our class advisor, whose diligent efforts and sincere interest in all of our endeavors have helped us tremendously in the task of being "SENIORS."

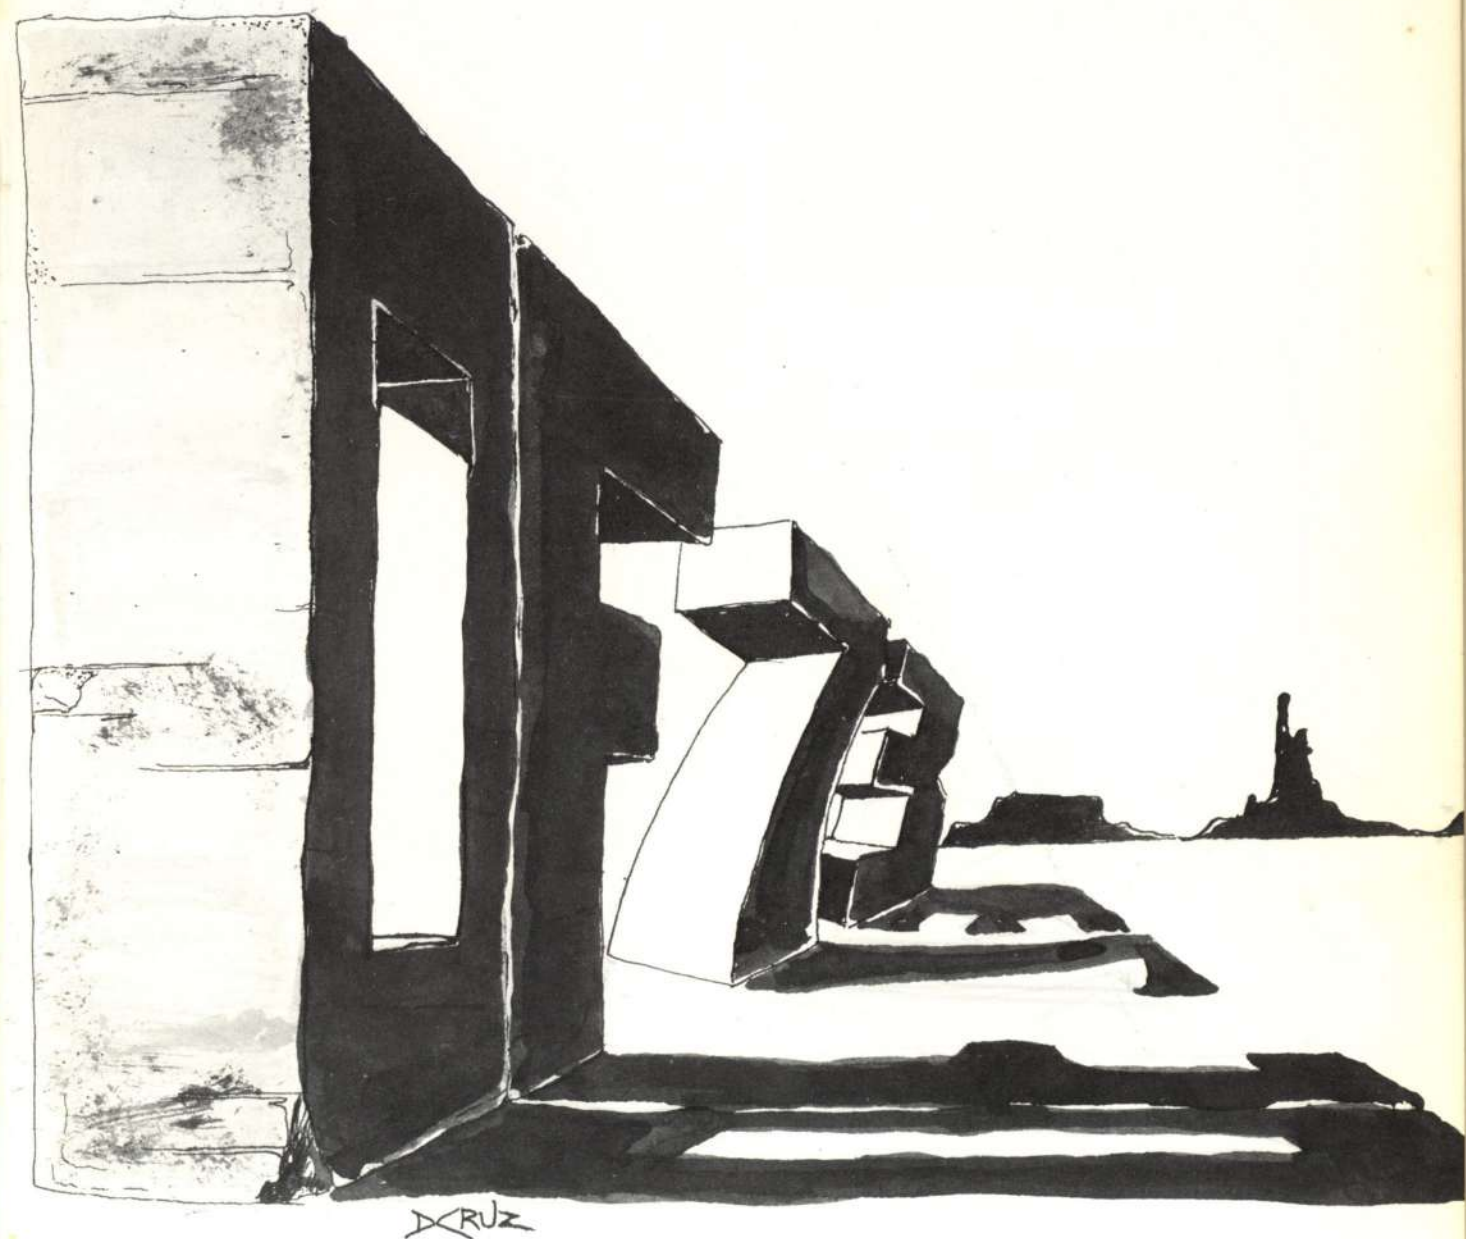

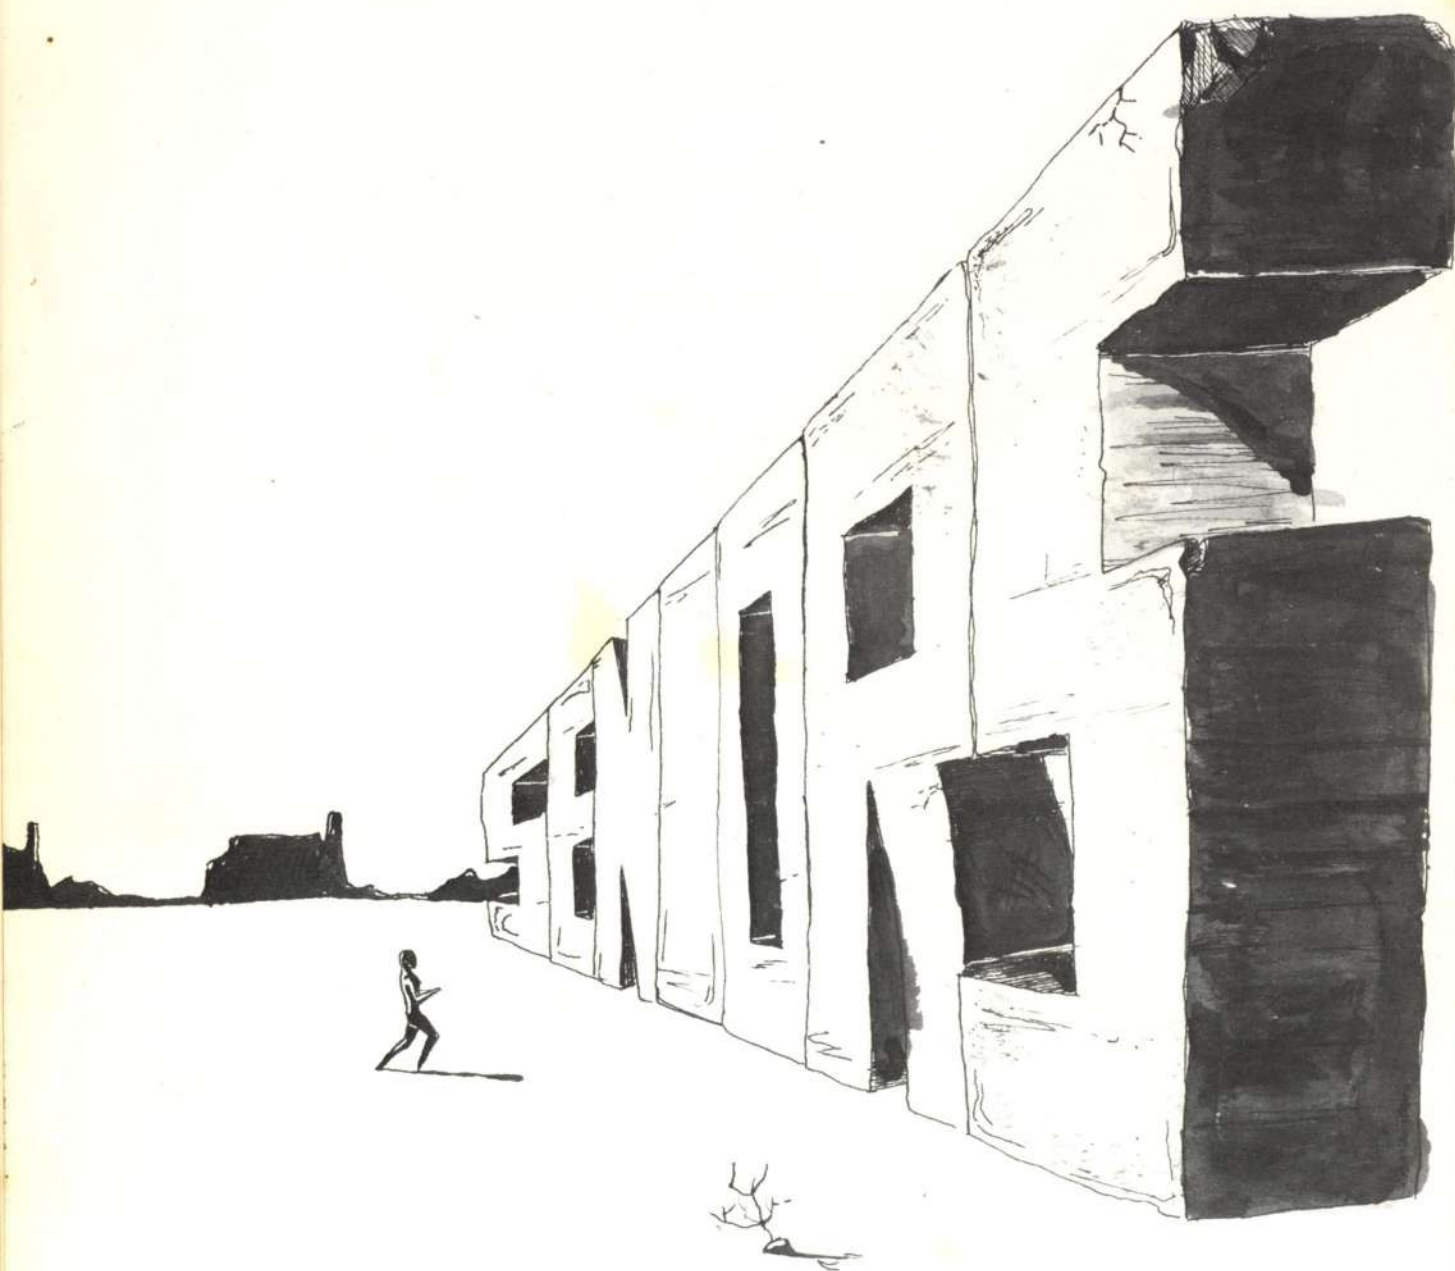

To both, the class says "THANK YOU!" for being the kind of people that will long be remembered and appreciated in the years to come.

SPECIAL THANKS

The class of 1973 would like to convey thanks to Mrs. Susie Frisby and Mrs. Martha Lamar, two of the greatest advisors ever. This small token of appreciation could not and will not ever express our sincere gratitude for the guidance and understanding which they have exhibited toward this class. There is no way that we know of that can compensate for their earnestness, hard work and extra hours of devoted service that they have given to us. The class of 1973 can only say, "THANKS!"
