How it All Began

In 2008, three French entrepreneurs had a vision: to create a real estate brokerage without the overhead, politics, or boundaries of the traditional model. They wanted to give agents true independence, unlimited growth potential, and the ability to earn from helping others succeed. That vision became iAD—short for Immobilier à Domicile (Real Estate at Home). Starting from a small team in France, iAD exploded across Europe, bringing its agent-first model to Spain, Portugal, Italy, Germany, and the UK. It expanded into Mexico, and then—in one of its boldest moves yet—entered the United States, launching in Florida.

Why It Matters to You

Today, iAD has over 18,000 agents working in 8 countries with one mission: empower agents to grow locally and earn globally. Florida is just the beginning for the U.S. market, making this a true ground-floor opportunity for ambitious agents ready to think bigger.

Stop Pulling Help Tickets. Start Getting Answers.

Real support. Real people. Real fast.

Tired of feeling like you're on your own? At too many brokerages, "support" means a generic email address and a 3-day wait for a reply—if you even get one. At iAD, we believe your time is too valuable for ticket systems, endless phone menus, and unreturned calls. When you need help, you get it. Fast. From real humans who know your name and your business.

What Support Looks Like at iAD:

- White-Glove Onboarding – We don't just hand you a login and wish you luck. We walk you through every step so you hit the ground running from day one.
- Dedicated Back Office Team – Compliance, admin, and transaction questions answered—no waiting in line, no extra fees.
- Transaction Manager Included – Most brokerages charge extra for this (if they even offer it). With iAD, it's part of your agent suite—because it's essential, not optional.
- Marketing Muscle – Need a listing flyer, social post, or ad? Our marketing team has you covered, plus you get access to hundreds of ready-to-use Canva templates for listing presentations, buyer guides, social media graphics, postcards, and more—customizable in minutes.
- Tech Support That Speaks "Agent" – We'll get you up and running on our tech stack quickly so you're not stuck in "setup mode" for weeks.
- Mentorship & Leadership Access – We pair new agents with experienced mentors, and our leadership is just a call or message away—not some mysterious figure who's "never in the office."
- Training + Ongoing Guidance – Whether it's contracts, marketing strategies, lead conversion, or niche markets, you've got experts in your corner ready to help you win.
- Community Collaboration – At iAD, you're part of a connected network of agents across the globe. Need a referral partner in another state or country? You'll find them in minutes.

"Being team leaders is easier with iAD – the support, tools, and mentorship give us the freedom to focus on our agents and our growth."
– Mathias and Savanna Jenniges, REALTORS

Culture. Community. Collaboration.

A place where agents never have to go it alone.

At iAD Real Estate, we believe real estate is more than transactions — it's about people, relationships, and shared experiences. From epic team events to unforgettable trips like the IWC (iAD World Challenge), our culture is built on connection. While other brokerages leave agents feeling isolated, we create a family-like environment where mentorship, collaboration, and fun are part of everyday business.

A Culture That Cares

We've built a place where you can succeed in business and feel supported in life. Whether we're meeting up for live training at The Inspire Space, rallying for a community cause, or celebrating wins together, you'll never feel like "just another agent."

A Calendar Full of Connection

Some of our favorite recent events include:

- iAD World Challenge – Hawaii 2025 – Rewarding top performers with a tropical escape.
- Disney Epcot Team Night – Sharing laughs, rides, and cocktails under the fireworks.
- Community Charity Walks – Giving back while walking side by side with our team and families.
- Social Mixers & Celebrations – From rooftop gatherings to poolside sunset parties.
- Live Trainings & Workshops – Learning, growing, and winning together.

"I've been with other brokerages, and I've never felt this level of connection. It's not just about selling houses—it's about belonging."

— Xavier Delgado, REALTOR

IWC: The Ultimate Celebration of Success

Every year, our top-performing agents are recognized at the iAD World Challenge, held in stunning destinations around the world. It's more than an award trip—it's a chance to connect with the global iAD family, share best practices, and return home inspired.

"I love that even though iAD is global, our team feels like family. We travel together, train together, and truly celebrate each other's wins."

— Karen Salter, REALTOR
