

London St Andrew's Book Festival

16-22 November 2026

Val McDermid

Bill Paterson

Harriet Tyce

Andrew Lownie

Jackie Kay

Alan Johnson

Carol Kirkwood

Gavin Esler

Alice Strang

The Maclean Brothers

Follow us:

Book now and see full updated programme
at www.standrewsbookfestival.org

Scots in London

WELCOME TO THE LONDON ST ANDREW'S BOOK FESTIVAL 2026

Welcome to all our guests and followers. We are absolutely delighted to be returning to London for our third year with yet another stellar line-up. What began at the start of 2024 as the seed of an idea to host London's first ever dedicated Scottish Book Festival has flourished into a week-long celebration of St Andrew's Day, bringing together best-selling and debut authors with their readers in a celebration of Scotland's culture and heritage in the heart of London. The London St Andrew's Book Festival is brought to you by Scots in London, an umbrella organisation that is made up of a diverse range of Scottish organisations across the capital. Across the festival you can enjoy a wide-ranging programme, from spoken word and fiction, to history, politics, geography and more. Thank you to all our speakers, supporters and sponsors, and to you for joining us.

Membership Scheme

Become a Friend of the Festival for just £75 and enjoy a range of benefits including 20% off tickets (excl. Literary Lunch) and early access to booking.

For more information and to join visit www.standrewsbookfestival.org

Scan the QR code to book tickets for Festival events, or visit the Festival website:

www.standrewsbookfestival.org

Festival Office: London St Andrew's Book Festival. Organised by Scots in London Events Ltd, a company limited by guarantee. Registered address: C/O The Caledonian Club, 9 Halkin Street, London, SW1X info@standrewsbookfestival.org

Follow us on social media

@standrewsbookfest

@standrewsbkfest

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

2026 marks the third year of The London St Andrew's Book Festival, presented by the Scots in London. It is a considerable achievement to establish a significant new venture into the cultural life of a busy capital and as Royal Patron I am delighted that Scots in London have combined once more to offer this ambitious and wide-ranging collaboration.

The Book Festival is a wonderful vehicle for bringing people together, encouraging authors and readers of all ages and interests, and demonstrating the creativity and contribution of Scots, in the heart of this international city.

My thanks and congratulations go to all those responsible for planning and running the Book Festival. To guest speakers and audience members alike, may you be inspired by your encounters, as you share your pleasure in the well-crafted written word.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Anne".

A wise nun advised a clergyman about taking up a new post: “Year 1, you don’t hold the reins. Year 2, you hold the reins, but don’t know what to do with them. Year 3, you hold the reins and know how to use them. Go for it!” This is the London St Andrew’s Book Festival third year – so, expectations are high - varied venues and diverse authors spread across central London, offering something for readers, committed, casual, old or young.

Presenting the Book Festival, Scots in London’s aim is to foster a vibrant community for Scots and “friends of Scotland”, celebrating our heritage and culture and enhancing the life of the capital. We achieve considerably more together than we do alone. The Book Festival is testimony to that. Proud of our roots, we seek to be international in outlook, hoping Festival friendships will reach far beyond our existing circles.

Huge thanks to those who “hold the reins” of this wonderful venture – Book Festival team, Handheld Events Programme team, our Royal Patron, event volunteers, authors and audience members. Now, let the reading begin and the conversing commence!

Reverend Angus MacLeod
Convenor, Scots in London Forum

Leave a gift in your will to our charity

Legacy gifts help us to plan long-term and ensure we continue our services
for future generations.

Would you support ScotsCare's future?

If you would like to leave a legacy gift to ScotsCare, we recommend you consult a solicitor for specific advice on wording. This will ensure that your wishes are carried out exactly as you want them to be.

To find out more about legacy giving

Please contact our Fundraiser on 0207 240 3718
or email fundraising@scotscare.com and they will help direct you further.

ScotsCare is the only charity dedicated to providing financial, practical and emotional support to break the cycle of deprivation, experienced by generation after generation of some Scots and their families across London.

We believe in the power of stories to connect communities. TrinityBridge is proud to support the St Andrew's Book Festival – where culture, heritage, and ideas come alive.

TrinityBridge

Scan to find out more about our partnership

PLANNING YOUR VISIT

HOW TO BUY TICKETS

ONLINE through TicketSource at:
www.standrewsbookfestival.org
 Carers and Support Workers are entitled to a free ticket by emailing info@standrewsbookfestival.org

BUYING BOOKS

A team from Bookbar Chelsea will sell copies of the authors' books after each event and most authors will stay after their talks to sign them.

EVENTS

All events last one hour unless otherwise stated. Children under 14 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult, each with their own ticket.

VENUES

Monday 16 November: event takes place at The Caledonian Club in Belgravia (9 Halkin Street, SW1X 7DR). Tuesday 17 November: event takes place at our sponsors Fundment in Fitzrovia (58-60 Berners Street, W1T 3NQ). Wednesday 18 November: event takes place at Scotland House in Blackfriars (58 Victoria Embankment, EC4Y 0DS). Thursday to Sunday programme (19-22 November) all take place at St Columba's Church in Knightsbridge (Pont Street, SW1X 0BD), with the exception of the Literary Lunch on Friday 20 November, which takes place at The Caledonian Club in Belgravia (9 Halkin Street, SW1X 7DR).

ACCESSIBILITY

Our venues have varying accessibility. Step-free access is available at all our venues via either ramps or lifts. Accessible toilets are available at all our venues and Scotland House also has gender neutral toilets. Hearing loops are available at St Columba's Church in The Sanctuary and at Scotland House.

There is one blue badge parking bay available outside St Columba's Church and pay and display parking is available around the building. Where possible we would advise travelling by public transport to all our venues.

TRAVEL & TIMINGS

For Scotland House: nearest tube station is Blackfriars (Circle and District Lines and National Rail Services).

For St Columba's: nearest tube stations are Knightsbridge (Piccadilly Line) and Sloane Square (Circle and District Lines).

For The Caledonian Club: nearest tube stations are Hyde Park Corner (Piccadilly Line) or Green Park (Piccadilly Line, Jubilee and Victoria Lines).

For Fundment Offices: nearest tube station is Tottenham Court Road (Central, Elizabeth and Northern Lines).

FOOD & DRINK

Food and drink will be on sale at St Columba's before our evening events on Thursday and Friday and all day Saturday. A few of our events include a welcome drink in the ticket price and this will be indicated in the event description. There are also cafes and restaurants near all of our venues.

REFUNDS

Refunds are only issued if the event itself is cancelled.

We hope you enjoy your visit to the London St Andrew's Book Festival.

MONDAY 16 NOVEMBER

1 6:30-7:30pm
Gordon Simpson: Four Deadly Swings

Join former sports writer Gordon Simpson as he talks to Clark McGinn about his gripping new thriller, Four Deadly Swings, set in the unseen, venal world of professional golf. A tale of rivalry, ambition and murder, with a jaw-dropping finale.

Gordon has worked with most of the top golfers in his media management career, including Tiger Woods, Colin Montgomerie, Seve Ballesteros and Nick Faldo. As well as his book he will reflect on a life in professional sport.

The Caledonian Club, 9 Halkin Street, SW1X 7DR, £12, ticket includes a glass of wine on arrival

TUESDAY 17 NOVEMBER

2 6:30-7:30pm

Robert Peston is ITV's Political Editor, presenter of the politics show Peston and the podcast The Rest is Money, and founder of the education charity Speakers for Schools. Before that he was Business Editor then Economics Editor for BBC News and played a central role in coverage of the banking crisis of 2007-2009. Robert has won more than 30 awards for his journalism. The final book in his trilogy of political thrillers The Kill Switch was published in July this year. He's in conversation with Hugh Pym.

Fundment, 58-60 Berners Street, W1T 3NQ, £15 (includes a welcome drink), or £18 which includes a welcome drink and a copy of The Kill Switch

Supported by Fundment

SCHOOL EVENTS

We are delighted to be offering an outreach programme for schools.

Please contact us at infostandrewsbookfestival.org
 for further information and to request an author visit to your school.

WEDNESDAY 18 NOVEMBER

3 6-7:30pm

Debuts Showcase

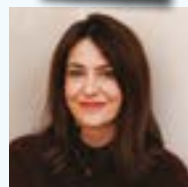

Showcasing some of the best new Scottish writers, we are delighted to welcome four super talented debut authors to the festival.

Mhairi Collie, a consultant surgeon, has written The Bright Fabric of Life, a story filled with romance, medical drama and an interest in the plight of women in Africa, as well as in the psyche of the female surgeon. Avril Millar, engineer, teacher, CEO and author of Feral, the result of a lifetime working inside the system, and the wisdom to make it irrelevant. Christina Riley, an underwater artist in residence at the Argyll Coast Hope Spot, has drawn on her experiences there to write Looking Down at the Stars, a collection of mesmerising essays. And Kirsty Lockwood, a former political journalist, and one of the Young Women Scotland 30 Inspirational Women Under 30 Award winners, has written a tense psychological thriller, We Know What You Did, featuring a murder during a livestream of a podcast. Four remarkable women, one brave man, Marcus Railton, interviewing them.

Scotland House, 58 Victoria Embankment, EC4Y 0DS
£12

© Robin Christian

BOOK YOUR TICKETS HERE

SCAN THE QR CODE to book tickets for Festival events, or visit the Festival website:
www.standrewsbookfestival.org

THURSDAY 19 NOVEMBER

All events on Thursday take place at St Columba's Church, Pont Street, SW1X 0BD

4 6:30-7:30pm

A Very Short History of Scotland

From battles and kingdoms to identity and nationhood, leading historians Murray Pittock (The Shortest History of Scotland) and Brian Groom (These Isles) explore Scotland's remarkable past. In conversation with Hugo Rifkind, they uncover the people, events and ideas that have shaped Scotland over centuries, offering fresh perspectives on the country's rich, complex and enduring history.

£12

© Carda Groom

5 7-8pm

The Maclean Brothers

Join Ewan, Jamie and Lachlan Maclean as they recount their record-breaking 9,750-mile row across the Pacific Ocean. Filled with extraordinary footage, humour and hard-won insights, this inspiring event explores resilience, brotherhood and purpose, revealing how three ordinary brothers achieved the extraordinary while raising over £1 million for clean water projects. In conversation with Rory Lawson.

£12

© Colin Means Story Shop PA, PA, Media

6 8:30pm-9:30pm

The Real Stanley Baxter

Join Brian Beacom as he explores the extraordinary life of entertainment legend Stanley Baxter. Drawing on the first authorised biography, this conversation with Marcus Railton uncovers the triumphs, struggles and contradictions behind one of Britain's most beloved performers, from Glasgow beginnings to television stardom, with wit, warmth and remarkable candour.

£12

7 8:30pm-9:30pm

Deadly Destinations

Join Chris Brookmyre (Quite Ugly One Evening) and Frances Crawford (A Bad, Bad Place) for a thrilling conversation about crime, community and the enduring appeal of mystery. From Glasgow's streets to the middle of the Atlantic, their gripping new novels explore secrets, justice and unforgettable characters, revealing how place shapes both crime and those determined to solve it. Chaired by Hugo Rifkind.

£12

© Alex Farnham

FRIDAY 20 NOVEMBER

© Paul Stuart Photography

8 12:30-3:30pm*Lunch with Carol Kirkwood

A familiar face on British television, Carol Kirkwood has been brightening mornings for millions as the much-loved weather presenter on BBC Breakfast. She's also a bestselling novelist, delighting readers with her warm, uplifting stories.

Join Carol for a wonderfully entertaining Literary Lunch packed with laughter, lively conversation and fascinating tales from her broadcasting career and writing life. Chaired by Nicola Meighan. Doors open at 12:30pm for a drinks reception, with lunch at 1pm.

Caledonian Club, 9 Halkin Street, SW1X 7DR
£65

Caledonian Club dress code smart: jackets and ties, dresses and skirts

All remaining events on Friday take place at St Columba's Church, Pont Street, SW1X 0BD

9 6:30-7:30pmPoetry Showcase

Three of Scotland's most distinctive poetic voices come together for a vibrant celebration of spoken word, storytelling and performance. Former Makar Jackie Kay (May Day), award-winning poet and social media sensation Len Pennie (Poyums annaw), and acclaimed poet, playwright and performer Hannah Lavery (Everything Everyday) share powerful, moving and often joyful work, exploring identity, language, place and the stories that connect us all. Chaired by Fiona Lindsay.

£12

© Denise Elise

© Kat Gollock

10 8pm-9pmAlan Johnson Meets The Mull Historical Society

Alan Johnson joins musician and writer Colin MacIntyre for a warm, entertaining conversation celebrating The Mull Historical Society. They'll explore the story behind the acclaimed album featuring Alan, the friendship that inspired the collaboration, and the shared threads of music, memory and storytelling that connect two remarkable creative lives. Expect wit, warmth and plenty of fascinating behind-the-scenes insights. Chaired by Nicola Meighan.

£12SATURDAY 21 NOVEMBER*12 11am-12pm*Review of the Saturday Papers

Start your weekend the right way with your host, Radio 4's Paddy O'Connell, Labour Peer and Times Radio broadcaster Ayesha Hazarika, Traitors star and author Harriet Tyce, and author and agent Andrew Lownie, as they run through the Saturday papers and pick out the stories that matter — and the ones that really don't but make you smile anyway. From politics and Westminster gossip to culture, books, columnists, curious headlines and the small stories that somehow capture the mood of the week, here is an entertaining guide to what everyone will be talking about over the weekend.

£10

© Steve Ullathorne

© Nick Grogan

© Charlotte Kree Photography

© Robert Taylor

13 12:30-1:30pm

An Expert Witness: Forensic Science on Trial

Join Professor Sue Black, one of the world's foremost forensic scientists, in conversation with acclaimed crime writer Val McDermid. Drawing on her new book An Expert Witness, Sue explores forensic science, justice and the courtroom, revealing how evidence can convict, exonerate—or fail—with profound consequences for us all.

£12

© Nick Grogan

15 2-3pm

Andrew Lownie: Entitled

Join bestselling royal biographer Andrew Lownie as he discusses the ever-evolving story behind Entitled, his explosive investigation into Prince Andrew and Sarah Ferguson. Drawing on years of research and exclusive interviews, Andrew explores power, privilege, scandal and the monarchy, revealing how reputations are built, protected and continually reshaped. Chaired by Hugo Rifkind.

£12

© Charlotte Knee Photography

14 12:30-1:30pm

The Scottish Colourists: Art & Life

Discover the bold, brilliant world of the Scottish Colourists with art historian Alice Strang in this fascinating event. Talking about the lives, friendships and vibrant works of this groundbreaking group, you'll learn how they transformed Scottish art in the early 20th century. Chaired by Fiona Lindsay.

£12

© Julie Broadfoot

16 2-3pm

Louise Welch & Harriet Tyce: Murder, Mystery & The Dark Arts

Join The Traitors star and bestselling author Harriet Tyce, whose new thriller Witch Trial explores a sensational Edinburgh murder case, alongside award-winning crime writer Louise Welch, discussing The Cut Up. In conversation with Marcus Railton, they delve into justice, deception, suspense and the dark corners of human nature that inspire their unforgettable fiction.

£12

© Ryan Rutherford

17 3:30-4:30pm
Val McDermid & Jo Sharp
Darkland Tales: This Door of the Seas

Join bestselling crime writer Val McDermid and Geographer Royal for Scotland Jo Sharp in conversation with Nicola Meighan about This Door of the Seas, their contribution to the acclaimed Darkland

Tales series, in which leading Scottish writers reimagine defining moments in the nation's past. Together they explore the ill-fated Darien scheme – a tale of ambition, adventure, catastrophe and the moment that changed the nation forever.

£12

© Mihnea Bodlovic

18 3:30-4:30pm
Jenni Fagan
The Delusions

Join award-winning Scottish novelist and poet Jenni Fagan in conversation with Fiona Lindsay about The Delusions, her bold, darkly imaginative new novel. Blending satire, heartbreak and the afterlife, Fagan explores love, mortality and what makes us truly human in a story as thought-provoking as it is unforgettable.

£12

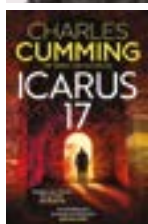

19 5-6pm
Bill Paterson

Join actor and national treasure Bill Paterson as he discusses Tales from the Back Green, his evocative memoir of growing up in 1950s Glasgow. With warmth, wit and nostalgia, he recalls the characters, communities and changing city that shaped his childhood and remarkable five-decade career. Chaired by Fiona Lindsay.

£12

© Johnny Ring

20 5-6pm
Masters of Modern Espionage

Join bestselling espionage writers Charles Cumming and David Goodman in conversation with Nicola Meighan about their latest thrillers, Icarus 17 and Solitary Agents. From covert operations and double agents to shifting global alliances, discover how two masters of spy fiction turn today's geopolitical tensions into gripping, edge-of-your-seat novels.

£12

© Danny Burrows

21 6:30-7:30pm*Gavin Esler

Scots have always been proud of the part our great thinkers - Adam Smith, David

Hume, Robert Burns - played in the Enlightenment. The promise was that the more reliable information we have the more "enlightened" the world would be. But in the 21st century Information Age is the opposite now the case? Author and broadcaster Gavin Esler explores our Un-Enlightenment, the deluge of often unreliable information that engulfs us and keep us uninformed.

£12

© Jake Douglas

22 6:30-7:30pm*The Life and Loves of Queen James

Join historian and broadcaster Gareth Russell in conversation with Fiona Lindsay about Queen James, his acclaimed new biography of James VI and I. Exploring the king's six great loves, political intrigue and turbulent reign, Gareth reveals a bold, witty and deeply human portrait that challenges centuries of royal history.

£1223 8-9:15pm*Marcas Mac an Tuairneir & the London Gaelic Choir

Join acclaimed poet, writer and songwriter Marcas Mac an Tuairneir for a unique evening of poetry, conversation and live music. Exploring Gaelic language, Scottish and LGBTQ+ identity, resilience and belonging, Marcas discusses his journey as an English-born Gaelic learner. Featuring musical settings of his poetry and a performance by The London Gaelic Choir.

£1224 8-9pm*Whiskies Gallore

Join whisky writer Ian Buxton in conversation with Marcus Railton as he celebrates the new edition of Whiskies Galore. Journey through Scotland's island distilleries, discovering remarkable drams, colourful characters and unforgettable adventures.

Along the way, enjoy the chance to sample a tot of whisky and raise a glass to Scotland's island spirits.

£12

SUNDAY 22 NOVEMBER

25 11am

Festival Service

The last day of the St Andrew's Book Festival begins by celebrating a week of wonderful encounters. The joint congregations of St Columba's, Pont Street and Crown Court Church of Scotland invite you to a service of celebration, giving thanks for the gift of authors, readers and the pleasure and power of books. In the 1880's when the congregation of St Columba's was established, the first group to be founded was the Literary Society. Over a hundred years later our community will be delighted to welcome all who share the love of books – whatever your tradition of prayer, or none, we will be glad to see you. The Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, the Right Reverend Gordon Kennedy is guest preacher.

FREE, all welcome. A two-course lunch is available after the service for £5

26 1:30pm

Pilgrimage, Faith and Wild Landscapes

Join poet and broadcaster Kenneth Steven in conversation with the Rev. Angus MacLeod as they explore Atoms of Delight, a moving reflection on pilgrimage, faith and the wild landscapes of Scotland. Through journeys across Iona and the Highlands, Kenneth reveals how nature, storytelling and Celtic spirituality have shaped both his writing and his life.

FREE, all welcome

Information is correct at time of going to press on 1 September 2026. Programme and other details subject to change. More events may be added - see posters, notice boards and Festival website for updates: www.standrewsbookfestival.org

BOOK YOUR TICKETS HERE

SCAN THE QR CODE to book tickets for Festival events, or visit the Festival website: www.standrewsbookfestival.org

ST COLUMBA'S

Church of Scotland

From the foundation stone up, shaped by visionary architecture, St Columba's offers activity and oasis, peace and prayer.

Serving Scots and Presbyterians from around the world, our building welcomes a wide community and witnesses a lot of life – performing arts classes, schools, support groups and drop-in dinners for homeless guests. All the while we worship God through Sunday worship and services marking life's great events, growing together and seeking to serve.

We are delighted to welcome you to the events of the London St Andrew's Book Festival 2026 and whatever your tradition of prayer, or none, to:

The Festival Service

11.00am

Sunday 22 November 2026

SCAN for more information

www.stcolumbas.org.uk

BOOKBAR

BOOKS EVENTS COFFEE WINE

CHELSEA II CHELSEA MANOR STREET, SW3
ISLINGTON 166 BLACKSTOCK ROAD, N5

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR EVENTS  GET DIRECTIONS TO BOOKBAR CHELSEA

“High quality teaching, rigorous assessment and personalised support ensure pupils are engaged, challenged and well prepared.”

ISI Report 2026

Book Your Visit

02075 909 000
knightsbridgeschool.com

Còisir Lunnainn — The London Gaelic Choir

Founded in 1891, we are the oldest continuing Scottish Gaelic choir in the world. We are a friendly, non-auditioning choir and always welcome new members.

Find out more and get in touch at www.coisirlunnainn.org

@coisirlunnainn

YouTube Còisir Lunnainn

CROWN COURT CHURCH OF SCOTLAND
COVENT GARDEN

We are an open and inclusive Presbyterian church, worshipping in Covent Garden for over 300 years

Whoever you are, whatever your story, you'll find a warm welcome at our weekly service

Join us for worship and fellowship at 11.15am every Sunday in person and online

Fundment
Move faster

Modern advice moves fast. Here's a platform that keeps up.

When advice is your promise, execution at speed is how you keep it.

Fundment is the investment platform that helps financial planners move faster by removing bottlenecks. Money moves. Instructions land. Information flows. And if you need help, you get it from a real person, fast.

Ready for a platform that protects your promise?
Visit fundment.com to find out more.

Fundment® is the registered trademark of Fundment Limited. Fundment Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (with firm registration number: 732727) and is an HM Revenue & Customs approved ISA plan manager.

FESTIVAL TEAM AND SUPPORTERS

Events Director:

Susan Pym

Festival Coordinator:

Jennifer Rowland

Programming Team:

Jo James and Lyndy Cooke,
Handheld Events

Media Partner - The Scotsman

PR - Midas

BookBar - Chrissy Ryan

Catering - St Columba's Volunteers

Scots in London Events Ltd Directors:

Hugh Pym, Shona Fleming, David
Coughtrie Convenor, Scots in London:
Revd Angus MacLeod

We would like to thank all our Scots in London organisations for their support of our Festival. Particular thanks go to our Scots in London host venues: The Caledonian Club, Scotland House and St Columba's Church.

We are also very grateful for our Festival Corporate Sponsors, our headline sponsors Fundment and TrinityBridge plus Bruce Jack Wines for their support of our Literary Lunch. Thank you also to The Scotsman, our Media Partner - without whom this Festival would not have been possible. Particular thanks go to Fundment for hosting a special evening at their offices and to The Scotsman for their extensive coverage of our Festival. Thank you also to our funders Bukhman Philanthropies.

Thanks also to our excellent bookselling partner BookBar, our catering suppliers and the dedicated team of volunteers from St Columba's Church of Scotland who run our catering stands.

We would also like to extend our thanks to everyone who has supported our Festival by becoming a Festival Friend, your support has helped us make the London St Andrew's Book Festival happen.

Special thanks to our participating authors, their publishers, the chairs, and the many hardworking volunteers who donate their time free of charge, and without whom the London St Andrew's Book Festival would be much less fun!

Malcolm Noble

The London St Andrew's festival team would like to pay tribute to Malcolm Noble who very sadly died this year. He was a key player in the launch in 2024 and successful delivery over the first two years. As well as being a founder of the festival he was a life governor of ScotsCare, former chairman of Forces Children Scotland, past president of the Caledonian Society of Scotland and a staunch supporter of Scots in London. Our thoughts during the festival will be with Malcolm's family and remembering his major contribution to its success.

Our Scots in London Organisations

Media Partner

Corporate Sponsors

Funders

Partners and In-Kind Supporters

EVENTS AT A GLANCE 2026

TIME	EVENT TITLE	VENUE
Monday 16 November
6:30-7:30pm	Gordon Simpson: Four Deadly Swings	Caledonian Club
Tuesday 17 November
6:30-7:30pm	Robert Peston in Conversation	Fundment
Wednesday 18 November
6-7:30pm	Christina Riley, Avril Millar, Kirsty Lockwood & Mhairi Collie: Debuts Showcase	Scotland House
Thursday 19 November
6:30-7:30pm	Murray Pittock & Brian Groom: A Very Short History of Scotland	St Columba's
7-8pm	The Maclean Brothers: Three Brothers in a Boat	St Columba's
8:30-9:30pm	Brian Beacom: The Real Stanley Baxter	St Columba's
8:30-9:30pm	Chris Brookmyre & Frances Crawford: Deadly Destinations	St Columba's
Friday 20 November
12:30-2:30pm	Literary Lunch with Carol Kirkwood	Caledonian Club
6:30-7:30pm	Jackie Kay, Hannah Lavery & Len Pennie: Poetry Showcase	St Columba's
8-9pm	Alan Johnson & Colin MacIntyre: The Mull Historical Society	St Columba's
Saturday 21 November
11am-12pm	Saturday Newspapers Review with Paddy O'Connell	St Columba's
12:30-1:30pm	Prof Sue Black: An Expert Witness: Forensic Science	St Columba's
12:30-1:30pm	Alice Strang: The Scottish Colourists	St Columba's
2-3pm	Andrew Lownie: Entitled	St Columba's
2-3pm	Louise Welsh & Harriet Tyce: Murder, Mystery & the Dark Arts	St Columba's
3:30-4:30pm	Val McDermid & Jo Sharp: Darkland Tales	St Columba's
3:30-4:30pm	Jenni Fagan in Conversation	St Columba's
5-6pm	Bill Paterson in Conversation	St Columba's
5-6pm	Charles Cumming & David Goodman: Masters of Modern Espionage	St Columba's
6:30-7:30pm	Gavin Esler: The Age of Unenlightenment	St Columba's
6:30-7:30pm	Gareth Russell: The Life and Loves of Queen James	St Columba's
8-9:15pm	Marcas Mac an Tuairneir & The London Gaelic Choir: Gaelic Voices	St Columba's
8-9pm	Ian Buxton: Whiskies Galore	St Columba's
Sunday 22 November
11am-12pm	Festival Service	St Columba's
1:30-2:30pm	Kenneth Steven: Pilgrimage, Faith & Wild Landscapes	St Columba's