

Tips for Better School Communication and Collaboration

Do you want to boost confidence and improve collaboration with your child's school?
Check out these 4 essential tips for creating a successful partnership.

1. Gather information about your child

You are your child's expert! Create a comprehensive profile:

- Strengths: Identify what your child excels at
- Challenges: Identify areas needing extra support
- Interests: Note their hobbies and subjects they enjoy
- Goals: Set clear, achievable goals for the school year

2. Get to know your child's school

To make the best decisions, know your options:

- Talk with SERT: Learn about supports
- Classroom placements: Ask about options
- Visit the school website: Explore resources
- Unique offerings: Understand special programs

3. Engage in collaborative communication

Communication helps the school support your child:

- Actively listen: Pay attention to school perspectives
- Share information: Provide key details about your child
- Be respectful: Maintain a positive and courteous tone
- Stay open-minded: Be willing to consider new ideas

4. Make a plan

Organize information and create a school year plan:

- Share a profile page: Introduce who your child is
- Schedule regular meetings: Discuss progress and strategies
- Outline goals: Create clear, achievable goals
- Collaborate: Engage in collaborative communication
